MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 1[illegible], 186[illegible]

Hon. John J. Crittenden.—This distinguished statesman has again been nominated for Congress, and in accepting the position made an admirable and truly patriotic speech. He demonstrated that the failure of the South to adopt the compromise suggested by him in 1861 when the North agreed to it, was the cause of the rebellion and the war which might have been avoided if the South had acceded to his propositions. Thus did he thoroughly refute the copperhead slander so often repeated, that the Republicans brought on the war by rejecting the Crittenden Compromise. While he admitted that some encroachments had been made on the Constitution, he said that these were minor evils compared with the destruction of the Government, and after the war could be remedied. It was, he declared, "the duty of freemen first to save the country from the uplifted sword, and then save the Constitution." These are the words of a man who has spent over half a century in the service of his country. They are, too, the words of patriotism.

Boise News.—We are indebted to [illegible] Taylor, Esq., who arrived here on Saturday evening last from Boise mines, for several items of news. Like all from that region he gives glowing accounts of the prospects and actual results of the mines, and mentioned several citizens of this State who are rapidly growing rich.

W. A. Ballew died at Bannock City, May 29th, of typhoid fever, aged [illegible] years. He was formerly from Missouri, but recently resided in Sacramento. His effects are in charge of Maj. Blake, of Bannock City, who will give any information to his friends concerning them.

Hung.—Griffin, the murderer of Shane, was hung in Lafayette on Tuesday, June 9th. The scaffold was erected in a small prairie about half a mile from the jail, and the prisoner walked to it with a firm, careless step, accompanied by two Catholic priests, whose faith he had embraced during his imprisonment. About fifteen hundred persons were present, among them a large number of women. The doomed man read from a paper a justification of the killing of Shane, which was followed by a prayer. He expressed a hope that the people present had not come from mere curiosity, but to be warned against committing crime, and in sympathy for him. At ten minutes after twelve o'clock, noon, the drop fell, and he died instantly.

Mountain Rangers.—The officers of this company have received their commissions, and the organization is now perfected. The following are the commissioned officers:—Ivan D. Applegate, Captain; James Thornton, 1st Lieutenant; Christian F. Blake, 2d Lieutenant.

[Special Correspondence to the Oregonian.]

Conclusion of the Nez Perces Treaty.

Wednesday, June 10th, 1863.

Editor Oregonian:

The treaty was finally concluded yesterday in the presence of a large number of spectators; there were several officers from the Fort on the ground, most of whom attended the treaty when required by the "high contracting parties." The boundary of the new reservation has been changed; it is to commence three miles below the Lapwai, thence crossing the Clearwater and running down the north bank to the mouth of the Hatwai creek; thence due north seven miles; thence easterly until it crosses the north fork of the Clearwater, seven miles from its mouth; thence along the north side of the south fork, five miles from the bank, until it crosses the north fork of the south fork; thence across the bridge on the Elk City road; thence westerly to the Wa Ha lake; thence northerly to the place of beginning. This will give them about 100 square miles more than was originally designed by the Commissioners. The total expense to the Government will net about $262,500. Of this sum $150,000 is to be expended in the fencing and plowing the 20 acre lots, one of which is to be assigned to each male Indian over the age of 21 years or to the head of each family. The sum of $70,000 of this amount is to be expended the first year; $40,000 the second; $25,000 the third and $15,000 the fourth year. There are to be two churches erected, two school houses, two saw and grist mills, a hospital, blacksmith shop, and other buildings. The ninth article of the treaty provides that a parcel of land about 250 yards square, in the town of Lewiston, is to be reserved to Dr. R. Newell, for his children, he having rendered valuable services in times past to the Nez Perces.—Some people at Lewiston don't seem to fancy this, as it covers lots on which valuable improvements have been made. It is said that this donation to the Doctor will be the cause of considerable litigation in the courts. The cost to the Government for negotiating this Treaty will not exceed $30,000; the appropriation by Congress was $40,000. The disaffected bands refused to sign the documents. The reason assigned by Big Thunder, Eagle of the Light, and [illegible] were that the difficulties and disagreements between them and Lawyer's bands were of such a nature that it was quite out of the question for them to join in any thing that that party did. They all gave assurances that they were on the best terms of friendship with the whites and wished to continue so; they did not want any presents or annuities, nor would they receive them. They approved of the action of the Commissioners, and also the treaty, but would not make themselves a party to it by signing it. They are very high toned, dignified gentry, these 'Big Thunder' party are. The goods and presents were distributed partly yesterday, the balance to-day. The [illegible] of these presents was about $10,000, and the females [illegible] seemed highly delighted with the [illegible]. [illegible] Commissioner Hale [illegible] brought for them. Immediately after the signing of the treaty an Indian Chief, Reuben, who has a valuable improved farm about five miles from Lewiston on the Clearwater, sold out a portion of his improvements to John Carleton and others for $2,000. The tract conveyed is four quarter sections; the purchase money is to be paid in improvements on his 20 acre allotments.

Three companies of Oregon Cavalry now at the Fort have received orders to leave for Boise on Saturday next, under command of Col. Maury. Chief Lawyer, before signing the Treaty, made a lengthy appeal to the Commissioners, urging them to let the Government know their feelings in relation to the matter and report the grievances they have suffered in consequence of the non fulfillment of the stipulations of the Stevens Palmer treaty. Several of the Chiefs addressed the Commissioners before signing; they all professed the most unaltered friendship to the whites and the Government. Lawyer and [illegible] John, two of the Chiefs, leave to-morrow on a visit to Puget Sound in company with Commissioners Hale and Howe; the latter gentleman is the Agent on the Reservation in that district, having some 6,000 Indians under his parental and moral charge. Lawyer wants to go and try some of the Puget Sound clams, having heard Don Stratton say so much about them. The dress parade did not come off as the Commissioners had to leave to-day on their way home.

LAWYER.

Letter from Auburn.

[From our Regular Correspondent.]

Auburn, June 29th, 1863.

The rainy season seems finally to have commenced. Yesterday and to-day we have had more rain than probably has fallen here since last June, and the prospect seems favorable for more, though not much hope can be built upon help from rains at this season of the year.

Auburn looks deserted in comparison with the past, when its streets were thronged and teams and trains were continually passing, loading and unloading; but Auburn does not need a Goldsmith to sing of its decline for yet awhile, and the time will come before many months when we will be lively again. It would be interesting to chronicle the departures from among us the last month as our [illegible] as the 'Boise fever' would attack one after another and carry them off, and the departures were often very sudden indeed, and quite unexpected, but we are confident of having them all replaced or others in their place, before summer is over, when the good time coming arrives and the Canal Company brings water in.

I see the people of the world at large are very much exercised about the future prospects of Columbia, late the Umatilla Landing, and the general impression seems to prevail that this point will ultimately become the principal commercial town of the upper Columbia. This opinion is heartily endorsed by the freighting men of this section, and they all seem to unite most unanimously in favor of this as a point to receive their cargoes, and I fear the Dalles will not long retain any great proportion of the up river trade.

There is little progress in this particular locality, but this is compensated for by the improvements beyond us along the Boise road. Every where that an available spot offers along the road, some one has made a location, and the whole route will soon be lined with stopping places.

Wells Fargo & Co having deserted us, J. M. Shepherd has come to the rescue, and his express makes good time and regular weekly trips to Walla Walla, and I can recommend Mr. Shepherd, so far as my experience goes, as prompt and reliable; and all letters intended for this place or Boise mines can be directed to his care, Walla Walla, and he will take them to their destination.

Perhaps it will be a great relief to the Sheriff of Multnomah, as also to the keepers of the penitentiary, to learn that we have a rumor in town that Enoch Fruit was killed at the Washoe Ferry on Snake river, a few days since. I have just been conversing with Mr. J. A. Carter, late of Jackson county, in an affray with whom Fruit met his deserved death blow. Mr. Carter met Fruit under the name of Macvay, exposed his real name and accused him of stealing a horse from him at Phoenix, in Jackson county, some five years since, all of which Fruit confessed to be true, and expressed a desire to make restitution. After considerable urging, he induced Mr. Carter to go across the river to his camp, and receive a horse in the place of the one stolen. This brought them to a shanty, where Fruit found three more of his gang, and forgot all about the restitution promised. In short, Mr. Fruit became very insulting, and when Mr. Carter gave him the lie, he drew a revolver and fired two shots at him, the first missed, and the second he knocked up, and stabbing Fruit in the left breast he seized the revolver from his hand and levelled it upon the rest, one of whom was about to shoot. Dictating terms to them, Carter made them assume such attitudes as suited him, and the most belligerent one of all followed him to the boat with his hands raised over his head, and stood on the bank in that position until the boat was fairly crossed. It is since reported that Fruit is dead, and the supposition is that he has been leagued with the Indians in their late depredations, as no one has known his whereabouts since last fall, when he was at Mormon Basin, under the name of Macvay.

A few days since, a gentleman of my acquaintance discovered a quartz lead near town, that seemed rich, and brought home a small specimen that was full of gold. I am confident that in time quartz mining will prove a very important branch of the business here. There are several lodes that prospect well in gold, which have been found in this immediate vicinity. What we need almost as much as water is capital, and the quartz mining in particular is only developed with the more permanent settlement and improvement of a mining region.

Prospecting parties are about starting for the Malheur, many being confident that rich mines can be found there. We hear of rich diggings already found on its head waters between it and the Owyhee. More than a month since a party of forty men went there from Boise, and I am told that word has come back from there to their friends in Boise that they had something worth staying for.

Then the silver question is occasionally broached, and leads are being located and recorded in the Clerk's office, as supposed to contain silver, and it may be possible that something of that kind will be found that will prove of great value.

The mines beyond Burnt river have been paying well all the spring, and several creeks emptying into the Malheur are being mined, to good profit. The Eagle creek mines are not abandoned. Water is scarce there, but some who have it to use are doing very well, and the Eagle mountains will develop in time into an extensive mining camp.

Court sits another week, unless the illness of Judge Wilson should prevent, and its proceedings will afford some items for your columns.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to June 8th.

Gen. Hooker again south of the Rappahannock, and beyond Fredericksburg.

Good News from Vicksburg.

Federal Victory in Tennessee.

Important from Mexico.

San Francisco, June 8th.—The rumor about trouble between miners and soldiers in Lower California mines sifted down to the bare fact that the Mary Taylor was signaled [illegible] put on board a mail bag that had been left behind by the Oregon. This mail has been distributed, and letters dated as late as May 2[illegible]th make no mention of any disturbance.

A private telegram from New York this morning states that the passengers of the American ship Hotspur, who were wrecked on the China Coast last February, were saved.

Details from Mexican sources regarding the capture of Puebla state that 50,000 inhabitants of that city were starving when captured. Ortega had positive information of the failure of Comonfort to relieve him. Gen. Forey offered to allow the officers to march out with side arms, provided they would take their parole not to fight against the French. Ortega refused, spiked his guns, burned the carriages, destroyed the infantry arms and then surrendered the city. Gen. Regulus, his aids, and an ordnance officer committed suicide by blowing their brains out. The Mexicans fought bravely to the last, contesting every inch of ground and frequently repulsing the enemy. The feeling against the French was so bitter that the Government had ordered all French citizens in Mexico to leave the city within eight days.

San Francisco, June 8th.—Heavy storms on the Plains east of Salt Lake has prevented the wire from working until to-day.

New York, June 7.—The Times special dispatch from the Army of the Potomac says that our crossing was very unexpected to the rebels. Our pontoons were laid at Franklin, one mile below Fredericksburg. As soon as the enemy discovered our purpose they fired on our men from their rifle pits, but were driven out. Sixty of the 22d Florida regiment were captured. We lost five killed and 23 wounded. Our forces then advanced and by dark they reached Bowling Green and posted pickets for the night.

A second dispatch states that by this advance movement enough is ascertained to enable the commanding General to locate a portion of the enemy's forces. During the night Lee marched two corps back from the vicinity of Salem Church to position in the front of our line of forces. Longstreet's corps has reinforced the troops at Fredericksburg. He slept there last night. This morning they marched in a southerly direction.

Nashville, June 7.—The fight at Franklin on the 4th was between four brigades of rebels, under Forrest, and our forces there. We held the rebels at bay until the removal of Federal stores, when reinforcements came up and drove the rebels beyond the town. Next morning, it was discovered that the rebels had the town. After severe fighting in the streets we succeeded in repulsing and driving them some miles beyond the town, taking 50 prisoners. All was quiet there yesterday.

New York, June 7th.—The steamer America, with dates from Bremen to the 24th ult., has arrived. The Confederate loan fluctuated greatly on the announcement of Stonewall Jackson's death. Reports of a probable armistice between the North and South have been received in London. A great meeting had been held in Litchfield for the recognition of the South. 10,000 people were present.—Resolutions were passed to memorialize the Government.

Mason had left London for Paris. A place of some importance on Dnieper has been occupied by the Polish insurgents. They had also gained a victory near—a place with a long unpronounceable name.

Chicago, June 8.—The St. Paul Minnesota Press furnishes some interesting details of the expedition which will soon move against the hostile Indians of the North-west. It will consist of 9 companies of the 7th, two of the 9th, and 8 of the 10th Minnesota regiments, besides 9 companies of mounted rangers and a battery of 8 pieces and 130 men. The train will consist of 300 mule wagons, 6 mules to a wagon, and 30 ambulances. The route has not been made public, but the supposed destination is Devil's Lake, the place where the Indians are gathering. The expedition will act in concert with that of Gen. Cook, which is moving from Sioux City, Iowa. Low water has somewhat retarded their movements. Besides a force of 1,862 men, which will be left to guard the frontier settlements. Seven hundred stands of arms have been distributed among the settlers for self defence.

Cairo, June 6.—News direct from Vicksburg reaches to Monday morning. The rebels have burned their upper works. The gunboat Cincinnati fired on the city on Monday night. One whole side of Washington Square has been destroyed by our shells. The planting of siege guns was progressing. It was the intention to open on the enemy with them along the whole line on Wednesday.

Memphis, June 5th.—A steamer from Yazoo river reports that the Federal lines were being drawn in so that the two armies were within speaking distance in places. The first line of fortifications had been silenced except one battery. Our sharpshooters keep the enemy from working their guns.

Gen. Osterhaus's division is stationed on the 1st bank of Big Black. It is said that he can hold his post against Johnson.

Contradictory reports are received as to rebel supplies in the city. An intercepted dispatch from Pemberton to Johnston says the forage is all gone and men on quarter rations can hold out but ten days longer. Deserters say there is ammunition and provision enough there for ninety days.

Fortress Monroe, June 6.—The Richmond papers claim that the fight at Port Hudson was a rebel victory.

Second Dispatch.

New York, June 9.—Money active. Sterling dull at [illegible]. Gold quiet at 42[illegible]. Government stocks without decided change.

Admiral Foote arrived this morning and is making preparations to assume the command of the South Atlantic squadron.

Philadelphia, June 9.—A colored brigade has been authorized to be raised here. A new military department is to be made in Pennsylvania, the headquarters in the western part of the State, to enable Pennsylvania to protect herself against a rebel raid.

New York, June 8th.—The Tribune has a special dispatch dated Headquarters Army of Potomac, June 7th.—The position taken by Howe's division upon the right bank of the Rappahannock on Friday evening, June 5th, is still peaceably held. The only hostile demonstrations within the last 24 hours has been an occasional shell from a 10 inch Rodman gun stationed on the hill. Our skirmishers hold the line of the Deep Run and Bowling Green road, while the enemy is in plain sight about a quarter of a mile off. About a mile directly in our front a battery can be seen, but no large bodies of their troops are in sight. There is abundant evidence, however, that the enemy is closely watching our movements, confidently hoping we may continue our advance and meet him on his [illegible] ground. A large detail of men are engaged to lay in [illegible] the enemy's rifle pits on the banks of the river near where we crossed. The banks are being leveled and the ditches being filled, thus restoring the ground to its former level surface and depriving the enemy of an immediate use of this defense. No general engagement is yet imminent.

The Herald's special dispatch says reports received yesterday from the Rappahannock states that two lines of battle were formed plainly in sight. The rebel lines were in the rear of their artillery, but affairs were quiet on both sides. The 6th Vermont was thrown forward as skirmishers and suffered the only casualties inflicted by the enemy. [illegible] the front [illegible] in their old position to the right of our left and the front of our advance column. Hooker [illegible] the river and visited the picket lines on Sunday.

A Hilton Head letter reports that the steamer [illegible] was recently [illegible] off Seabrook Island, and that the [illegible] was lost near [illegible] running ashore.

A Suffolk letter states that the rebel report that Suffolk had been evacuated is untrue.

Admiral Bailey writes to the Navy Department that since December last, he had taken 70 prizes in the Gulf of Mexico.

Washington, June 8.—A letter from Folly Island, Charleston harbor, dated June 1st, states that there are but a thousand rebel troops on James Island, where there were formerly 12,000. This infers that they have been sent to operate against Grant.

New York, June 8.—A Hilton Head letter of June 4th reports a raid by 200 men of the 2d S. C. colored, under Col. Montgomery, has returned without the loss of a man. 800 contrabands were brought in. It is stated that 5000 might have been brought off had transportation been sufficient.

Cincinnati, June 8.—A dispatch dated Mount Vernon, June [illegible], says reliable information from Knoxville places the number of rebel troops there at 12,000.

Reports all agree that [illegible] holds the Cumberland Gap with 20,000 men. The latest information in regard to Pegram places him at Monticello, Ky., with 7000 to 8000 troops. The rebels say 10,000 men were withdrawn from Bragg to reinforce Johnson, and that Bragg had not over 4,000.

Nashville, June 8.—Our loss in the recent engagements at Franklin was 50 killed, wounded and missing; the rebel loss is said to be double.

Chicago, June 9.—A dispatch dated Monticello, Ky., 10 a. m. to-day, says, we have been driving Pegram's command before us since 8 a. m., skirmishing for a distance of 8 miles. As far as ascertained the rebel loss is two killed and 10 wounded. Our loss is three wounded.

Washington, June 9.—John Ross, Chief of the Cherokee Nation, writes to the Indian Bureau, that a special Cherokee Council, held at Prairie Grove, agreed to the severance of all connection with the rebels and the abolishment of slavery. A Delegation, of which Ross is chairman, has been sent to Washington to renew the treaties and petition that the Cherokees may be removed to their own country.

New York, June 9.—The Tribune's correspondent says the President feels satisfied about the situation of Grant and is confident he can reinforce more rapidly than the rebels, thus preserving our numbers, and bring the siege to a successful conclusion.

Washington, June 9th.—Last evening's Star says, we do not feel at liberty to publish the details of the latest information received here from the vicinity of Vicksburg, inasmuch as by doing so we might promulgate facts, the knowledge of which might aid the enemy's resistance to Grant's army. Suffice it to say that we are satisfied that there is very late information here from that quarter, of an entirely satisfactory character. Grant is progressing well with his works. Advices have been received from Pittsburg, Pa., to the effect that Major General Heron left St. Louis for below with a large force.

New York, June 9th.—The Tribune says, from a gentleman fully conversant with affairs at Port Hudson and in the Department of the Gulf, who arrived last night we learn some interesting facts concerning the situation of Banks' army. Our informant left Port Hudson on the night of the 31st. There had been no fighting of consequence since the assault on May 27th, but Banks had been industrious and rapidly contracting his lines and approaching the rebel works. The wings of our army rested at or near the river, both above and below. There was no possibility of reinforcements reaching the besieged garrison.—The contest of May 27th was very desperate and bloody, the rebels fighting with most reckless courage, and our troops not a whit behind them in daring or pluck. Our informant corroborates the good accounts heretofore given of the conduct of the colored soldiers. These sable warriors provoked the most frenzied hatred on the side of the enemy, and the rebels bent all their energy to their annihilation, and since the battle they have missed no chance to kill negro pickets. In one instance they proceeded upon a single black sentry, captured and hung him. This bloody instruction was quickly improved, for almost within an hour some negroes got hold of a rebel picket and swung him up in full view of their murdered companions. The report that Kirby Smith arrived to relieve Port Hudson is probably erroneous. Smith is supposed to be in Texas or Western Louisiana, certainly nowhere near Port Hudson, nor could he get across if he were opposite. Col. Grierson is slashing around, and at last accounts was between Port Hudson and Vicksburg, tearing up the railroads, destroying bridges, hunting up Confederate stocks and canvassing the State generally. It was generally understood in Banks's army that Joe Johnston was at Jackson, Miss., but had no force to bring against Grant. We regret to learn that Gen. Sherman, who was wounded at the Port Hudson battle, is hardly expected to survive. The weather is terribly hot, and the place is dry and dusty.

New York, June 9.—Port Hudson advices state that Col's Clark and Paine, previously reported killed, were not in the least injured. Col. [illegible] of the 4th Wisconsin, and Capt. [illegible] of Weitzel's staff were killed.—[illegible] regiment lost 70, killed and wounded, out of 300 in the fight.

A Times letter says the 1st Louisiana colored regiment showed great pluck on May 27th, marching up towards the guns within 80 paces, at the double quick, supported by the 8th Michigan, and the 174th and 161st New York. The three regiments were badly cut up, the colored regiment [illegible] about 200 [illegible]. The rebels opened on them with a battery of siege guns and forced them to retire with heavy loss. [illegible] Banks would allow him to march out with guns, provisions, etc. This was refused. It is reported that the rebels [illegible].

In Town.—Commissioners Hale and Ho[illegible] arrived in this city on Saturday evening from the scenes of the treaty just concluded with the Nez Perces Indians. They were accompanied by Lawyer and Capt John, Nez Perces chiefs, who visited our office last evening to see the power press in operation and express[ed] [illegible] little astonishment at the process of running paper through. They left this morning for Puget Sound.

City License.—In order that all interested may have an opportunity of reading the ordinance imposing licenses in this city we have been requested to republish it. It will be found on the fourth page. The City Collector also gives notice to-day of his readiness to receive applications and grant licenses.

Shepherd's Express.—J. M. Shepherd [illegible] running an express line from Walla Walla to Auburn, John Day, Boise mines, connecting with Wells, Fargo & Co. Letters directed to any of the above places in care of Shepherd's Express, Walla Walla, will find a safe and prompt conveyance.

Assay Office.—Wells, Fargo & Co. have opened an assay office in their Express Office.

Theatrical.—The drama of "Alice, or the Mysteries," from Bulwer's novel of Ernest Maltravers, was presented to a large audience on Saturday evening. It was exceedingly well played, and Mr. Waldron as Richard Darvill both looked and acted the character admirably. Miss Mitchell, as Alice, acquitted herself in her usual good style.

To-morrow (Tuesday) evening the dramatic company will be the recipients of a complimentary benefit tendered by the young men of Portland, and all who wish good seats should secure them at once. "Nick of the Woods" is the drama chosen for this occasion.

Ladies' Fair.—The ladies of Trinity Church are going to hold a fair at Armory Hall on Wednesday evening next.

The Tumwater Convention.—The People's Convention at Tumwater, W. T., adjourned on the 9th inst. without making a nomination, the members withdrawing in favor of Mr. Raynor, the Union candidate for Delegate.

The Canvass.—The candidates for Delegate from Washington Territory have gone down the Sound, speaking at the different places on the way. They will speak at Steilacoom on the 24th, and at Olympia on the 25th, after which they will probably address the voters of Clarke county at Vancouver, and close the canvass east of the mountains.

DR. D. JAYNES'

EXPECTORANT

AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place in the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat,

Inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

UPPER UWCHLAN, Chester Co, Pa, Sept 15, 1858.

Dr. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail. I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured. NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 15, 1860.

L. W. TINKILL, Esq. New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion I began the well known (but not enough known) "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.

I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.

I remain, my dear Tinkill, with esteem, your servant and friend, J. B. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co, O., May 31, 1860.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hope of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well. J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co, Pa, July 23, 1863.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true. MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr D Jayne and Sons' Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC, which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time

Dangerous Advice by a Clergyman

Mr Snibs's son was engaged in breaking up a piece of new land with a team of unruly oxen Junior Snibs becoming vexed at the ill usage he was receiving at the plough handle set up such a vociferation of protracted oaths as to astonish the Rev ——, who expected to see a bolt launch poor Snibs into eternity Feeling it his duty to chastise uncalled for wickedness, he stopped and lectured the infuriated youth for some time, warning him of the punishment that awaited such blasphemy

"Why sir, I'll bet my head that such cattle, and such ploughing, would make a minister swear"

"I think not my young friend," said he "I am a minister, and it would not make me swear"

"I'll bet my dinner on it," was the sanguine urchin's reply, "and take the bet if you dare sir"

"To make a bet would be equally wrong, but I'll go one bout and prove to you that your swearing is useless"

The boy assented, at the same time applying his whip heartily upon the oxen while turning them into the furrow The parson took a firm hold of the handle and started the team Rip—tear—slap—jerk went the plough, giving him an occasional rap in the side or on the shins. The oxen feeling the smart of the castigation, were all but abidable

"Wo—back—gee—haw—go along Buck and Bright" exclaimed the preacher, becoming excited "The like of this I never did see! Gee, Buck! Haw, Bright!"

Slap came the plough tail against his side, knocking him some ten feet The boy stopped the team The moralist was on hand, saying

"I never saw the like, no man ever did. It beats all," etc

Thus he continued until his bout was accomplished, when he triumphantly said to the lad

"There, I've gone a bout without swearing"

"Yes," replied the boy, "but you have told a great many stories"

"What, do you mean to say I have lied?"

"Yes, sir, because a great many have seen this same land, and some worse"

"But you must never tell any one they tell lies You should whistle—remember that"

After admonishing the youth soundly on swearing, he made him promise to be at church the next Sabbath, where he was to preach

When Sabbath came the boy, agreeable to promise, went, and took a front seat in the gallery During the sermon, the divine observed that "of all the bird creation the bite of the goose was the most severe" A shrill whistle was given by the boy The divine's attention was drawn to the gallery, where he saw his hopeful youth. Again he repeated the same sentence, and again the boy gave a shrill whistle, which echoed throughout the church

As soon as the service was ended the minister attacked him for improper conduct in church

"Didn't you tell me to whistle whenever I heard any one tell a lie?" replied the boy.

"Did I tell any lie to-day?"

"Yes, sir—you said a goose bite was the most severe of any of the feathered tribe"

"Well, did I lie, then?"

"Yes, sir"

"How?"

"Because, sir, the gander can bite just as severe as the goose"

The parson left for dinner

TWO BROTHERS.—Two members of the Society of Friends, a country and a city Friend, had dealings. Some months since the country merchant called on the wholesale house to settle an account In adjusting the details there was some difference in the views of the parties, and as often happens, the country dealer was dissatisfied with some of the charges of the city house At last, however, everything was settled, the money paid, and a receipt in full taken, when the country merchant addressed his city friend as follows:

"Friend Samuel, we have had dealings together more than thirty years, and I have always paid every dollar I owed when it was due, and have never asked any delay or favor, and we have now settled once more If thee pleases, I wish to say a few words before I go home"

"Certainly, friend Robert, I shall be happy to hear thee"

"Well, friend Samuel, I have known thee like a book for thirty years, and I must say that, though I have known a good many hard customers, thee is the meanest specimen of a white man I ever had anything to do with"

Friend Samuel listened, with his composed a countenance as if the speech had been complimentary in the highest degree, and replied

"Friend Robert, did thee ever know my brother Amos?"

Neither said another word, the rejoinder was irresistible

Some months since an elderly couple were married in Paris, and after the congratulations of parents and friends, the nephew of the bride skipped, arose, exclaiming

"A tooth! a tooth! who has lost a tooth?"

"My sister," bawled out the bride's little brother, "she lost it yesterday and I found it"

The poor bride not knowing how to extricate herself, resorted to fainting The relatives hastened around, the old beldames tittered, the young misses whispered, and the finder of the tooth received a cuff that made him see stars

"Where am I?" muttered the poor girl, opening her eyes and closing her lips

"In the midst of your friends, and in your husband's arms"

"What then has happened? mon Dieu"

"Alas"

"Something frightful, then?"

"Frightful! 'tis enough to make one pluck the hair from his head"

Thus saying, the husband carried his clenched hand to his waving locks, and plucked off a magnificent wig

A burst of laughter followed this act of conjugal heroism

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whiskey vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in [illegible] under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D D, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge [illegible]

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr C M Jackson, of this city because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them

J NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23 1861

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that HOOFLAND'S German Bitters will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life to use his own language "has been saved by the Bitters"

PHILADELPHIA August 23 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life There is no mistake in this It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility heightened by an attack of dysentery I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr Frederick Steinbron of Sixth below Arch Street advised me, as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it, getting better Though I have taken but two bottles I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months for, gentlemen I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade Mr Malone, restored to life.
